Christian Löhr advises his clients - predominantly medium-sized companies and entrepreneurs - on corporate and contract law as well as on M&A-Transactions; he also litigates for them in court in disputes between shareholders (corporate litigation). Christian Löhr is a specialist lawyer for commercial and corporate law. Legal 500 also certifies his special expertise in this area in the Ruhr/Westphalia section in 2020. The Handelsblatt has awarded him several times together with Best Lawyers Germany for his work in the field of "Litigation" (2019, 2020, 2021), Finance Monthly 2021 awarded him the Legal Award Investment Law-Germany. His work as a notary in Essen focuses on real estate and corporate law, including mergers, demergers and corporate transactions (M&A). According to JUVE-publisher, he is regularly among the most recommended lawyers in corporate law (most recently in the Handbook 2020/2021). Christian Löhr has been advising his clients competently and purposefully for over 20 years. His clients appreciate the clarity of his recommendations and the high level of service. He remains friendly even in pressure situations; humour is not neglected. Where necessary, however, the interests of his clients are enforced with firmness and great determination.
